

Join Maude Barlow For A Talk About Water

On behalf of the Hamilton Chapter of the Council of Canadians, I invite you to attend the chapter's 5th Annual Public Forum featuring guest speaker and Council of Canadians' Chairperson, Maude Barlow.

Maude will be speaking about her new book Boiling Point: Government neglect, corporate abuse and Canada's water crisis. Other speakers include Councillor Aidan Johnson, who will address the local water issues in Hamilton, and Danielle Boissoneau, Anishnaabe writer and activist, who will share her reflections on the importance of water.

Event details

When: Thursday, June 15 at 7:00 p.m. (Doors open at 6:30)

Where: The Hamilton Spectator Auditorium, 44 Frid St., Hamilton (Map)

The Council of Canadians is partnering with the Bay Area Restoration Council, Blue Dot, Democracy Probe International, Eco-Locke, Environment Hamilton, Hamilton 350, and the National Farmers Union (Local 351) for this event.

Come and learn more about the importance of water and what we can all do to protect it in our community!
