

PILGRIMAGE OF SACRED PLACES

A Port Nelson Outing to Hamilton!
Saturday, October 20th
8.30am to 1.30pm

Led by Michael Brooks and Stillman Matheson

Many of us pass by interesting buildings but we never see the interiors. Here is YOUR CHANCE to see several unique sacred places in Hamilton's north end! We will be welcomed by people from each faith community who will speak about their particular expression of Christianity and show us the "sacred place."

8.30am bus leaves Port Nelson

9.00am St Stanislaus Polish Catholic Church
Includes demonstration of the organ

10.00am St Nicholas Serbian Orthodox Church

11.00am St Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Church

12.15pm 7 Peter Street a church/synagogue/residence
Lunch served

1.30pm bus returns to Port Nelson

SIGN UP: This morning on the bulletin board

COST: $40 (includes transportation, lunch, and a contribution to each of the "sacred spaces")

PAYMENT: Remit to Ann Fleming, Pat Gilmore or the church office

ONLY 30 SPOTS AVAILABLE!

Experience our fall theme – "The Blessings of Place" – first-hand!
